To Mother Clare

THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1952 wishes to dedicate this edition of the Shamrock to Mother Mary Clare, O.P. in honor of her return to St. Vincent. Mother replaces Sister Bernice who is now teaching on the staff of St. John College in Cleveland. It has been six years since Mother was principal of Saint Vincent and we know she has noticed many changes in office facilities, the auditorium, study hall and especially in the new library. We take great pleasure in welcoming her back and extend the best wishes of the student body for many more years as principal of "the school on the hill."

THE AIM OF ST. VINCENT HIGH SCHOOL is to develop the intellectual, physical, emotional, social, and spiritual powers of each of its students. Keen minds are produced by the well-rounded curriculum and the good facilities provided by the school. Sound bodies are shaped in the sports field and in the physical education classes. Self-control is practiced throughout each schoolday by the observance of the school rules. Friendships are made through various clubs and activities, such as the dances and games. The spiritual aspect is developed throughout the year by the religion classes and church activities. Every student graduating from St. Vincent has been given these opportunities so that he may enjoy worthy membership in society.

SPRING'S FIRST OUTING

IN EVERY SEASON

Autumn

Rust colored leaves falling from the trees combine with cool breezes to take us into golden autumn with a season's pass good for flying pigskins, cheering crowds, smiling jack-o-lanterns, and yellow cornstalks. The school year begins and freshmen are taken into the whirlwind of high school activities. Upper classmen return and summer's happy-go-lucky spirit flies south with the birds giving way to the serious and more important factor of life—education. We are ready to start another year, so remember—"Well begun is half done."

*How bravely Autumn paints upon the sky
The gorgeous fame of Summer which is fled.*

← IN THE SPOTLIGHT

"WHAT TALENT!" The freshmen were entertained by classmates at freshie mixer. Mary Ellen Doran, Marjorie Spindell, Judith Hesidence, and Diane Morris formed a quartet and sang in old barbershop style. Future accordion kings, David Gaus and Louis Caporaletti, played two lively polkas. Francis Quine gave the piano a workout when he played Norwegian Concerto. Mary Helen McKinney, Patty Meadows, and Patricia Richak, in top hats, did the soft shoe tap!

GREAT NUMBERS showed up at the annual freshman party to enjoy the fun and excitement planned for them. There was dancing of all kinds in the shamrock-decorated gym. The freshmen were kept busy trying to guess the Mystery Man and seeing who could get the most autographs. Awards included those for Mystery Man contest, door prizes, and the boy and girl who had acquired the most autographs. After the big affair there were many weary but happy frosh.

ON FRIENDSHIP DAY, senior John Raub was confronted by an enthusiastic throng of girls seeking autographs of all the football heroes. John obliged.

Friendship Day, that special day each year for meeting new friends and greeting the old, found Leonard Tylka, Edward Toth, and Jack Stenger eagerly soliciting the signatures of Rita Walko, Frances Palisin, Dorothy Wozniak, and Noel Sturmi, all freshmen.

♦ ♦ ♦ of Faith and Friendship

Fidelity is Pledged

THE LONG AWAITED EVENT, presentation of senior class rings, began the list of great moments in the senior year. This impressive ceremony, which usually takes place in St. Vincent's Church, was held in the auditorium. Monsignor Conry gave an inspiring talk on the significance of rings through the ages as pledges of loyalty and fidelity. This was followed by the presentation of the rings to their proud owners. Jim Barry eagerly received his from Monsignor as Paul Slaven, class president, helped with the distribution. The ceremony closed with Benediction on the stage which was transformed by a beautiful altar. Afterwards cries of "Oh! How beautiful!" were heard in the halls as students displayed their rings to friends.

Seniors Renew Tradition

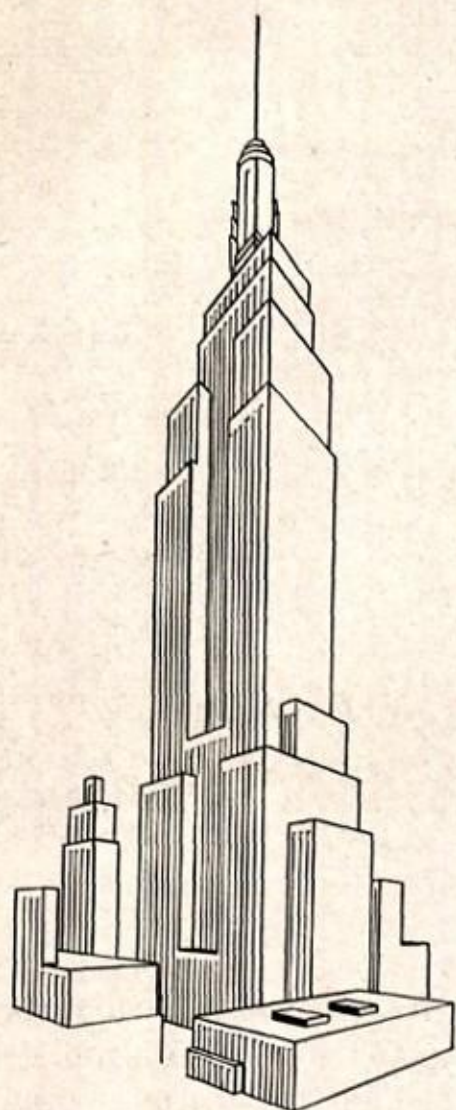

HERE AT LAST! Three happy seniors Joan Stefan, Sally Delagrangre and Dick Reiheld view the 1952 Class rings as Sister Julianne displays them. Since September the seniors looked forward to the ring ceremony, one of the highlights of high school days. Twelve years at St. Vincent comes to a climax at graduation for twenty-three students shown below. All agreed that twelve years is a long time to share experiences but true cooperation and common ideals helped to preserve lasting friendships.

WE'RE OFF! After anticipating the trip to New York for many weeks, the big moment finally arrived. Parents and many members of the student body bade us "farewell" at Akron's Pennsylvania Station while popping flashbulbs and cheerful goodbyes marked our departure. We invaded the "Big City" early the next morning. Upon our arrival at the hotel, we were surprised to see Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt as she was leaving the hotel. Via the subway we traveled to Columbia University, where we attended conferences all day, learning the correct procedure for building better year-books. That evening we were enthralled by the Rockettes, the greatest precision dancers in the world, and the movie, "An American in Paris", at Radio City Music Hall. Bright and early Saturday morning we boarded a "double-decker" bus for the University to attend the last of the conferences. A luncheon at the Hotel McAlpin closed the convention. Saturday afternoon was spent browsing through many exclusive shops. The twinkling lights of the city looked like fairyland in the "stratosphere" on the roof of the R.C.A. Building Saturday night. Sunday was begun in grand style with Solemn High Mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral. Our weekend was climaxed Sunday afternoon by a thorough sight-seeing tour, from Fifth Avenue to the Bowery, which ended at Pennsylvania Station. As the train moved westward nothing remained but the happy memories.

"IT TOOK LOTS OF TIME and energy," explain Tom Garlando and Mike Cummins to an interested biology class. As the students take notes, Tom explains the construction and assembling of the plaque which was made by Tom, Mike, and Bob Brizes. Their project was one of the highlights of the annual Biology Exhibit.

Pat Bean, Barbara Krizanic, Margie Elmauer, Gerry Schafer and Betty Caruso await their turn to enter the mobile unit for their X-Rays. This service is sponsored by the County's Tuberculosis and Health Association.

← VOICE OF AMERICA

"UNITE FOR FREEDOM." This was the general theme for National Education Week as carried out by St. Vincent students. Each class presented a skit over the public address system on alternate days of the week. In each of these scripts a different phase of education was portrayed and each class used a special saint as a patron. Looking over their parts before "going on the air" are juniors Larry Barr, Catherine Allman, Rhae Metcalfe, and Barbara Sullivan.

"World government now is impossible," the negative side stated in the battle of words as Junior Town Meeting stepped into the spotlight. This year four seniors, all of Saint Vincent, faced the first elimination. Mary Lou Groetz and Patricia Aldrich were the "yes" girls while James Smith and Don Wood pleaded "no" to the international problem of world government. Mr. Cyril Jones, Director of Radio Education, was the moderator as WAKR recorded the arguments.

"WE THE PEOPLE" →

"IT'S GREAT TO BE A BIG SHOT was the conclusion reached by "Speaker of the House," Joe Egan. In the civics class he was appointed to this high position and fulfilled his duty admirably. He explains to "lower" classmates the seating plan of the House. Dazzled by the "Congressman" are Maureen Spearman, holding the picture, Charles Gilbride, Vice President, Pat Ink, Pat Abraham, and Janice Farris. Rosemary Quinn and Kathy Bell, seniors, observe the proceedings.

"I like the wide open spaces, out where the cactus grows." This is the song of these six gun-toting cowgirls. These girls were chosen from different West Akron high schools to represent the West Akron Board of Trade in the parade at the East Market Street reopening last November. Kathy Bell, third from the right, was the Saint Vincent representative. The girls agreed that the East was nice but they also agreed that the wind was "mighty" cold.

ALL GREAT THINGS begin in a small way—thus began the art program at St. Vincent. This past year, Sister Vincentia held classes in room 301. However the students do not mind these present inconveniences. "All for the sake of art," they say. Mother Clare plans gradually to transform a large room on the third floor of the grade school into an ultra-modern studio. Pictured above are some of the students taking advantage of a lovely autumn day to get some sketching done. The busy artists are, from left to right: Ed Pramuk, Barb Sullivan, Mary Koval, Jack Watson, Gerry Keenan, Dick Fabbro, and Jim Wargo.

PUSS 'N PUMPKIN

← OH — O — O

"OHHH," CRIES MARY KOVAL, frightened by the jolly jack-'o-lantern that Don Schorr and Carolyn Seikel are holding. The event is the annual Halloween dance, The Sleepy Hollow Ball, given by the sophomore class. Frankie Reynolds and his orchestra supplied the "haunting" melodies. Blinking owls and leering pumpkins changed the gym into an eerie setting for Ichabod Crane.

Traditional Halloween fare, cider and doughnuts, was served during intermission to John Meadows and Margie Dettling by Rosemary Caruso. The dance was our first social event of the year and a challenge to other classes both in beauty of decorations and financial success. The sophomores deserve a big hand.

... A Festive Note

THE GHOST OF ROMEO haunted the stage at St. Vincent at Halloween. Jack Kilway, Frank McVan, Kathleen Doran and Mary Lou Longville are receiving last minute instructions from Sister Joseph before their first performance of the play, "The Haunted Clothesline." At the bottom are Mike Mutchler as Romeo; Mary Lou Longville, Kathleen Doran, Tom Jesser, and cigar-smoking Frank McVan, the scrapping parents; Marjorie Wozniak and Jim Wargo, the thwarted, young lovers. Throughout the year the Drama Guild has the responsibility of entertaining the faculty and the student body of St. Vincent. Its members devote many hours to practice, settings, and sound effects. Productions are under the direction of Sister Joseph.

BEFORE, DURING, AND AFTER football games, St. Vincent Band did its job with a spirit comparable to a band of much greater size. Under the direction of Mr. Edward Jones, a student teacher from Akron University, the "big little band" gave an inspiring performance in both musical skill and marching ability. Long hours of faithful practice enabled the band to give these performances consistently. Their snappy music enlivened all the cheer rallies and bolstered the Irish spirit when things looked dark. The Ladies Auxiliary of the St. Vincent Booster Club aids the band financially. They have sponsored card parties and other like events to provide the money for new instruments. The football team will always have loyal support as long as the "green and white" marches at the games.

POWER, STAMINA, AND EXPERIENCE played a leading role in turning out victories for Saint Vincent football team this season. The Saints had a veteran combine with more than their share of dash and spirit. Foreseeing a good season for the team, their followers expected and were gratified by many victories packed with thrills. The "Fighting Irish" compiled one of the best records in the school's history, despite the fact that they played more games than usual. Every man produced and as a consequence the team succumbed to defeat just three times in a heavy ten game schedule. Since they were decisively beaten by only one team, Erie Cathedral Prep, it is plain to see just how potent the Irish were. The second loss, by a slim 14 to 7 margin, was to Barberton, a team that was always in the top ten in the state. Their last defeat was absorbed in mud and snow at the hands of Buchtel. This game was lost in the final seconds and could have gone either way. The victims of the Irish were Kenmore, East, Springfield, Canton Catholic, West, St. Mary's, and Cuyahoga Falls. The taste of victory was especially sweet against West High and our friendly rivals, St. Mary's. The Irish had won five straight last year before the underdog cowboys stampeded the Irish into their first defeat. Against St. Mary's Martin Testa added insult to the defeat by kicking a field goal. Aiding the eleven seniors in compiling this enviable record were juniors Ronnie D'Alessio, Chuck Pfeil, Bob Brizes, Joe Elio, Larry Foore, Bill Starinki, Jerry Meyers, and Adeb Haddad. Sophomores were valuable substitutes. The parochial championship, and the best won-lose record in the city are testimony to the fact that the Irish were a credit to their coaches, faculty, and followers.

"WE GIVE THEE THANKS" →

AFTER EACH GAME, the football team headed straight for the chapel. As years go by, new teams will follow their example by thanking God for the spirit of the Irish and asking for His constant guidance.

"We're here to cheer and to fight for our team!" Echoes of school songs and cheers ring through the cheering section and out over the field. Shouts of "Team rah," and "We want a touchdown," urge the team over the goal line.

Hail, The Conquering Heroes

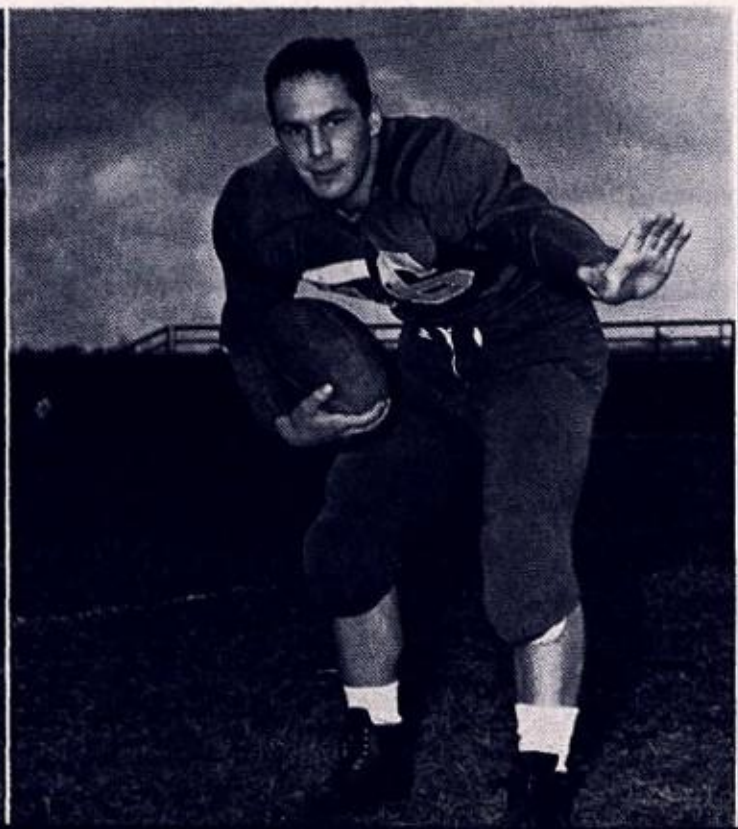

THE GREATEST NUMBER OF SENIORS to don the green and white in many years, led the "fighting Irish" to the best schoolboy record in the city. Coach Eddie Wentz's charges were led by co-captain and quarterback Louie Baldacci, who did the passing and signal calling. Louie gained All-City first team for his outstanding performance throughout the season. Paul Slaven and Chuck Albanese, the mercury merchants of the backfield with their breakaway running, tied for scoring honors. Jerry Stitz, known well for his bone-crushing running, completed the backfield. On the frontline Jim Hallinan and Chick Kormanik, a couple of strong tackles, opened gaping holes in the opposing line for the backfield.

Dick Gauthier and Chuck Skidmore operated nicely from the guard positions. Chester Bekeleski proved one of the best centers in the district and received All-City recognition. Tony Zeller's booming kickoffs put the enemy in the hole at the start of every game. Co-captain John Raub and Don Eisenhut, two glue-fingered ends, held down the flank position. On defense "Red" Hubbard kept the enemy from completing many passes while Don May and Jim Kline filled up the holes with jarring tackles. These spirited seniors inspired their teammates and were rewarded for their hard work with one of the best seasons in Irish history.

IN FOR TROUBLE

ST. VINCENT 31 — KENMORE 0

The Irish gridders opened their season on the right foot by whipping an undermanned Kenmore eleven. In twenty-five seconds the Irish drew first blood and stayed in command the whole game.

ROUGH ROAD AHEAD

ST. VINCENT 14 — EAST 12

Capitalizing on the "winged shoes" of Paul Slaven, who scored both touchdowns, and the "golden toe" of Louie Baldacci, who kicked the extra points, the Irish edged a powerful and highly-favored East team.

ST. VINCENT 0 — ERIE PREP 23

The Irish took on the strong Pennsylvania Club, but from the start the out-sized Saints were not in the game. Erie was the only team to hold the Saints scoreless, 'twas sweet revenge for them.

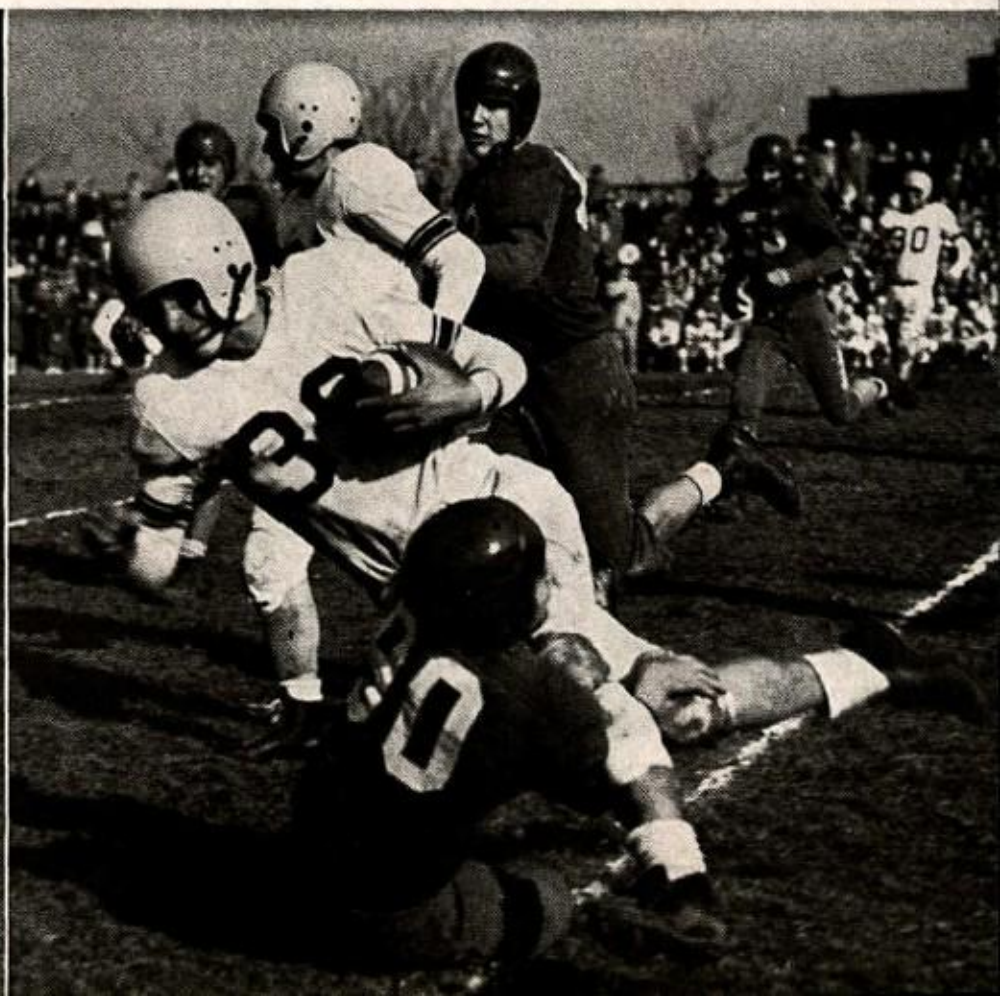

ST. VINCENT 41 — SPRINGFIELD TWP. 14

Everybody went into the act as the Saints rolled over a small and outclassed Springfield team. This game produced for the Irish the highest total score of the season.

ST. VINCENT 14 — CANTON CATHOLIC 0

After a scoreless first half, St. V. solved the stubborn Canton defense and punched across two touchdowns while holding the visitors scoreless. Chuck Albanese was brilliant on offense.

COMIN' THROUGH

... of Football Victories

ST. VINCENT 19 — WEST 6

The Irish were ready; there was to be no repetition of last year's stunning defeat by an underdog West team, so the Saints tamed the spirited Bisons. Albanese and Baldacci led the way.

ST. VINCENT 7 — BARBERTON 14

Although the Irish played their best game of the season, they broke out with a rash of fumbles that spelled defeat. Chuck Albanese slashed over for the Saint's lone tally.

ST. VINCENT 6 — BUCHTEL 12

Buchtel pushed across the winning tally with only seconds remaining in the game. Jerry Stitz set up the St. V. touchdown with a forty-one yard return of the opening kick-off; later he scored.

ST. VINCENT 24 — ST. MARY 14

Stitz's fifty-three yard TD jaunt, Raub's recovery in the end zone, and Testa's field goal manufactured seventeen big points in the opening quarter. The stunned Crusaders never recovered.

MAKE WAY!

ST. VINCENT 13 — FALLS 6

Cool quarterbacking and pin-point passing by Louie Baldacci enabled the Saints to close a successful season by beating a stubborn Falls eleven. Baldacci and Pfeil scored touchdowns.

WHAT HIT ME?

One Bright Star . . .

HER MAJESTY, AGNES MEYERS, smiled happily as she emerged from the three-dimensional star as the 1951 Homecoming Queen. Co-captains John Raub and Louie Baldacci had the honor of crowning her and presenting her with the football autographed by the entire team. Those attending Queen "Aggie" were Ann Donahue, Barbara Moffitt, Pat Snyder, Joanie Starner, and Peggy Wheeler. The Queen's escort was Jerry Stitz and the attendants were escorted by John Raub, Jim Censky, Louie Baldacci, Don May and Chet Bekeleski respectively. Al Day's Quintet played for the event. Senior boys constructed the three-dimensional star.

THANKSGIVING is a time of celebration and happiness. To-day, like their forefathers, Americans thank God for their freedom, their success and for just being citizens of the United States. With this idea in mind many give food to less fortunate families who have not shared so greatly in the benefits of our way of life. Two senior girls, Mary Ann Hutchinson and Pat Mills prepare just one of the many food baskets given this year by generous Americans who gave to make other happier.

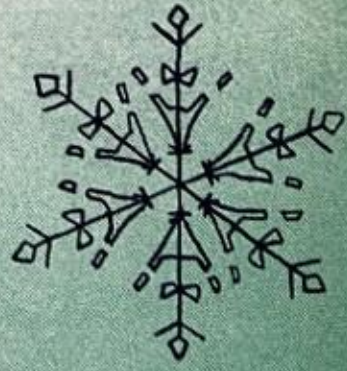

Announcer, Joe Weibel, looks over his notes while Rita Tersigni, Marie Raasch, and Larry Zerr watch intently as Joan Kirk points an accusing finger at the "Football Hero." The Drama Guild's Thanksgiving play, "Football Hero," starred Jim Censky as Stan, the hero, and Marie Raasch as Margie Winters, a beautiful but brainy girl. Margie's talent for writing compositions prompts Stan to ask her to the dance. Trouble starts when Joan Kirk, Stan's jealous girl friend, discovers them. It all turns out well and ends on a happy note.

Clad in Eskimo fashion students turn their interests to basketball, wintersports, and to the Christmas festivities. A new year is welcomed in and the old one is ushered out. Mid-term exams are taken and the second half of the school year is begun. We may now grow a little weary but with the motto, "Don't give up the ship," we will succeed.

"IS IT A BIRD, A PLANE, or a shrimpboat?" "Nope," explains Frank Volpe, "it's an unassembled motor." The motor was given for experimental purposes by the Chrysler Corporation through the courtesy of Hall-Roush and was assembled by the machines class. Frank, who was in charge of the experiment, shows his classmates exactly where each part is placed. Watching and learning are future mechanics Dick Theis, Bill Saunders, Ken Willett, Herb Kerlee, Jim Barry, Dan Weirtz, John Benson, and Bud Karg.

"THE BEST OFFENSIVE TEAM that has come out of St. Vincent since I have been coaching here—" In these words Coach Wentz gave the best description of the 1951-1952 basketball team. Although the "Saints" lacked height, they made up for this defect with their exceptional accuracy from the field. During the season's 21 games, the Irish sharpshooters poured a total of 1329 points through the hoops to lead the other city teams in total points scored. Led by Chet Bekeleski, who caged 278 points, and Don Eisenhut with 269, who set new school scoring records, the Irish enjoyed another successful season which saw them win 11 games and lose 10. Of the 10 losses the Saints suffered, 8 of them were by margins of four points or less; two of these were overtime contests. They reached their peak with a spectacular rally to upset a good Barberton team. Then, in the season's finale, St. Mary again eked out a one-point victory. This disappointing loss in the last three seconds of play left the team stunned; and Buchtel, a team which the Saints mastered by 15 points earlier in the season, beat them in the district tournament. The team of 1951-1952 deserves congratulations; their fine play and sportsmanship have been in keeping with the best traditions of St. Vincent High School.

Defending for the Crusaders are Schlimm, Wehner, and Kraft. This thrill-packed game was witnessed by a record crowd at the Irish gym. The Irish were dwarfed in size in both these games but made up for it with sheer fight, and determination.

The 1951-52 Basketball team was an experienced one. It was virtually the same team that three seasons before had gone undefeated in Freshman play and had won the Northeastern Ohio Freshman Tournament at Massillon by winning four straight games. The next year this same team, now playing for the reserves, compiled one of the best records a St. Vincent reserve team ever had, winning 15 and losing only 1 game. In their junior year they played on the varsity for the first time and pulled one of the biggest tournament upsets by beating North, the city champions, 60-59. Led by Chet Bekeleski and Don Eisenhut who supplied the scoring punch, the Irish finished this season with an 11-10 record for a finale to four successful seasons. Chuck Albanese was always a threat with his long shots; Louie Baldacci furnished the rebound work along with Don Lockett, an accurate one-hand artist. Jerry Stitz supplied an added punch with his dribbling lay-ups. Helping out these six seniors were sophomores Bill Curley, Jack Mars and Lenny Gmerek and juniors Larry Foore, Adeb Haddad, Mike Sullivan, Cletus Young, and Chuck Pfeil.

Spring

The patter of rain drops and the musty smell of the damp earth as it throws off its blanket of snow heralds the approach of the lovely spring season. Budding plants, blue sky, and the beaming sun make the world seem bright and new again. It is the time when tennis rackets and golf clubs come out of mothballs and are put into active use. Baseball diamonds are filled once more. Spring is our pass to new enjoyment of life. The air and the smell of flowers buoy up spirits that have sagged low during the long winter months. Students, too, receive new courage in their studies. With their goal in sight they strive even harder to attain it.

*"Spring, the sweet Spring is the year's pleasant king;
Then blooms each thing, then maids dance in a ring."*

— Thomas Nashe

THE SAINT VINCENT NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY claims its members from the ranks of the junior and senior classes. Officers this year included Don Taggart, President; Barbara Moffitt, Vice-President; Mary Lou Bauer, Secretary; and Don Wood, Treasurer. The meetings were held twice monthly to plan and carry out forthcoming activities. Early September found the N.H.S. busily cutting out green V's for Friendship Day, an annual project of the society. In October they turned their efforts to the support of the United Fund Drive and surpassed any previous year's record. The next activity was the talent show in February, which has always been favorably received by the student body. In that annual event a variety of talent is chosen to represent the various classes and encourage budding careers. The second semester was filled with such projects for N.H.S. members as presenting the art department with new easel-seats, awarding of pins to new members, sponsoring the administration of the G.A.T. tests to six "brainy" seniors and bringing the alumni book up to date with the faces and life stories of its graduate members. This year proved to be very interesting and educational. With experience behind them, today's graduates look to the future prepared to accept the challenges of life, and become contributing citizens of our democracy.

Summer

Summer with its warm, sunny days is a pass to relaxation. Nature has completed her work, and her beauties can now be enjoyed by all. Vacation and recreation are as much a part of this season as are the bright days and cloudless sky. Vacation means pleasure; pleasure includes swimming, canoeing, picnics in the park, and the Fourth of July. For some, summer brings the end of the school year; for others, the end of friendships and the beginning of memories. However, even with these thoughts in mind it is difficult to wait in expectation of the social events of the year—the Prom; and finally, the climax of all high school life—Graduation.

*"Oh, the summer night
Has a smile of light
And she sits on a sapphire throne."*

All Good Things Must End

THE LIGHTER SIDE OF GRADUATION

WE THE SENIORS OF 1952 hold beautiful memories of our adolescent days in high school. Now as men and women we march forward into the opportunities that America offers and leave with you, the underclassmen, the facilities of this school. As we receive our diplomas we remember well the first day that we entered the halls of St. Vincent. We were amazed at the large auditorium, the big red "coke" machine, and the library that was especially for our use. We grew with the school for four years. In these years we have given to God, three of our classmates—Mike Hayden, Bob McDowell, and Agnes Rataj —into the religious life, and one, Rose Marie Welsh, to Him forever. To the service of Uncle Sam, the class has given Auggie Fields and John Benson. We made many friendships, laughed at many jokes, and had very important serious moments. Since we are leaving the school on the hill, we should like to thank our teachers for their help, our friends for their fun, but most of all should like to thank God for giving us such a wonderful chance for education. We now know how to serve God and country much better than we did four years ago. The seasons have passed and have added up to a year.

God's Sanctuary Shines Forth . . .

GUIDE TO OUR GOAL

THE NEW DECORATIONS IN ST. VINCENT have made it one of the most outstanding churches in the city of Akron. The exquisite designs were created by European artists and took several months to complete. Rich color harmonies blend to impart a spirit of religious peace and grandeur to all who enter the church. The ceiling is divided into four sections and adorned with symbols of the four cardinal virtues. The walls are rose with gold-stripe borders. Tall pillar-like panels on the walls are soft gray with gold adornments at the top, giving an illusion of great height. The stations are beautifully done in gold and ivory. Behind the side altars the walls are rose with elaborate gold and black designs. These are done skillfully to compliment the architecture. White altars and the statues of Mary and Joseph are very prominent in this masterpiece of design. The main altar, recently inlaid by Italian marble setters, consists of four colors of marble with patterns of gold. Behind the main altar is a complex pattern of the theological virtues, with Christians, represented by doves, seen drinking from the cup of Charity. Magnificently done in red, black, and gold leaf, this is the highlight of all the decorations. On the sanctuary ceiling, the four evangelists are represented by liturgical symbols.

"THE HOMEROOM WITH A HEART." This title was given to junior homeroom 109 because they were first to reach their quota in the collection of mission dues. Under the presidential reins of Bob Brizes these boys worked very hard in many school activities. The class had fine athletic representation on the varsity football team in Ronnie D'Allesio, John Costello, Jerry Myers, Joe Elio, and Bob Brizes. Also, they had the "Shamrock Triple Threat," Dave McKoski in the Bantam League. Nowhere in Hollywood could you find better actors than Frank McVan, Jack Kilway, Mike Mutchler, and Tom Jesser, the 109 "Drama Guild" stars. These boys were given the task of selling milk and came through in wonderful style; every noon Phil Fellingner, Dave Gibson, Bob Monaci, Ronnie D'Allesio, and Bob Frank could be found under the stage selling milk. They never turned a job down and with the motto, "Be your duty great or small, do it well and do it all"; they were a credit to our school.

Juniors Progress . . .

A LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING and a lot of something go to make up our home room. A special unity has risen among us as we have worked together in the past two years. Our home room was very well represented in the extra-curricular activities of the school. During the half-time shows at the football games we proudly watched our three majorettes—Nancy Morgan, Dolores Poje, and Joyce Querry, and one band member—Dolores Ondas. We also boasted members of the O. B. E., Spanish, French, Home Economics, and Chem-Phy Clubs. We were given the task of preparing refreshments for the two Junior-sponsored dances—the Christmas Formal and the Prom. Everyone agreed that the cookies and punch tasted swell. We were the first home room to fulfill our quota for the yearbook patron fee. We were also very generous in contributions toward the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and the United Fund drive. All these activities helped to form a Junior class united in spirit—all ready for next year.

WE ARE PROUD TO SAY that we had the distinction of being the largest home room of Junior girls. During our third year we occupied the old library room. How many of you noticed the display our home room put up on the office bulletin board? Each "Junior Miss" brought information on and a picture of an Akron Catholic Church. The art work was done by "Sandy" Hollander. Our home room was populated with members of the National Honor Society, the French, and the Spanish Club, the Home Economics Club and the Chem-Phy Club. Besides belonging to school clubs, our girls were active in sodalities. There were also a few taking the new art course. Marilyn Abraham, Mary Kay Kehrle, Pat Bell, and Marilyn Jost were kept busy by their library duties. Representing our home room on the "Vincentian" staff were Marie Klocker and Marilyn Abraham. Marie, along with another classmate, won the "I Speak for Democracy" contest at St. Vincent. Like all Juniors we plan to make next year the best one of all.

Juniors

"LAST IN THE ALPHABET BUT FIRST IN SPIRIT," was the motto of 105, the only mixed junior class. Surnames ranged from P to Z, with the exception of Regis Appledorn and Patty Bean, two newcomers to the junior ranks. We looked forward eagerly to the choice of sweaters, jackets, and the "big decision"—our class rings. We met our deadlines in paying our mission dues, pledged our full support to the "United Fund Campaign," and gave a handsome patron fee to the yearbook. Our class president, Jim Sturmi, walked away with top place scholastically in the junior class. Bernadette "Sis" Slaven deserved our vote as the up-and-coming artist. Throughout the year, Rita Tersigni continued writing fine articles for the Vincentian. A perky little majorette, "Scottie" Scott, and a fine alto-singer, Audrey Seib, gave our class a variety of talent. Chuck Pfeil and Bill Starinki proved their brawn and brains on the football field. With these accomplishments behind us, we go forward.

CLASS OFFICERS →

THESE ARE THE LEADERS of the junior and sophomore classes. As officers their job is to plan and organize class activities. The juniors presented the Christmas formal and the Prom in fine style while the sophomores did a "terrific" job on the Halloween Dance. As true leaders, the officers not only organized but also gave a great deal of time and energy to make the dances successful. Before the dances, they were seen painting decorations and doing other work. They led their classes through the steps to a profitable year.

FRESHMAN OFFICERS

LARGEST FRESHMAN CLASS in the history of St. Vincent got an early start in proving their leadership by electing their class officers. This group representing various homerooms includes (seated clockwise) Toni Benko, Carol Fassnacht, Maureen Spearman, Kay Conry, Ronald Cannon, Zaunia Becker, Edward Rolph, Charles McGuckin. Frank Quine, Mary King, Chuck House, Peggy Sherman, Jim Dudik, Donald Ondecker and Charles Figliola are standing. These freshmen are receiving training in leadership and already wistfully dream of being upper-classmen.
